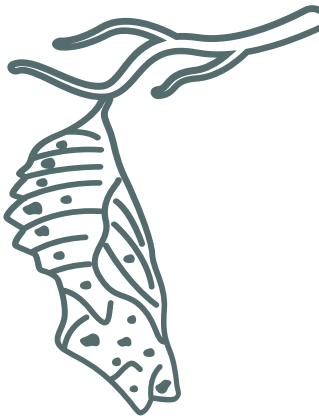
YWCA IS ON A MISSION

Meet Our Counselor!



Jacquelyn Wheeler is the YWCA DV Crisis Counselor in our Domestic Violence program. Jackie was born and raised in Genesee County and is thrilled to be working in her community. She is a graduate of Canisius University with a master's degree in Clinical Mental Health Counseling. Jackie has helped people living with addictions, families supporting a child with Autism, and has an extensive background in child and family therapy. She utilizes a variety of therapeutic techniques and approaches; but likes to use DBT, sand tray and play therapy. Jackie loves to read and travel, different kinds of tea from around the world, fun mugs and big dogs.

Services:

- 1:1 Therapy for Adults and Children
- Group therapy
- Art Therapy
- Survivor Support
- Parenting Classes

JACQUELYN WHEELER

DV CRISIS COUNSELOR

301 North St, Batavia, NY 14020
Call: (585) 343-5808 Ext.207 for more information!